Joseph L Rosner

Was born May 15, 1897 , Joseph Otto Rosner to Joseph Lewis and Josephine Grande Rosner. In Marion County Indiana. He was the 13th of 18 children.

He married Emma Jean Riley (Garber) May 14 1924.

They had 9 children, two who were twins that died shortly after birth.

He registered for the WW I draft on June 5 1918. His draft card is below:

TRACE 14 86 REGISTRAR'S REPORT 3-24 -R Besner Jr/_ 1217 134 I 3 112 No. Jaceph 16th and Main St Findlans,olis Ind - | blue light brown 10-01 Lay 15 1897 -(Trat) 10.11 11-71 (inter) SLOE W/ 10th St/ IndianspilieInd Hasthy HINHH aller I -it Morton 3.8 Germany 140 Telseen. 1.14001 Joseph Rosner Sr/ 5. 1918 16th and Lain Speedway Indiana Joseph Rosner Sr/ LOCAL BOARD S102 W. 10th Indianapolis Ind MARION COUNTY nigute OUTSIDE INDIANAPOLIS HALL, Jone ALVIN RATION CARD. 2

According to the draft card above he was employed by his father at 16th and Main, the site of the Rosner's drug store for almost 100 years, which at the time was a grocery store and drug store.

Joe Rosner, second from left, in front of Rosner's. Others unknown.

And another early picture of the Rosner business:

The building had two apartments upstairs. They were later occupied by Dr. Ernest McDonald, the first doctor to practice in Speedway. His ailing patients had to climb the stairs for help. A dentist then shared the space. There was also a freight agent's office for the P&E Railroad with Newton Jennings as agent.

The draft card also states that he lived with his parents at 3102 W 10th Street. That residence is pictured below from sometime in 1990's

Joseph L got a diploma in pharmacology (druggist) May 6, 1921.

INDIANAPOLIS COLLEGE

Commencement exercises of the Indianapolis College of Pharmacy were held May 6, when diplomas were awarded to the following graduates, namely:

the following graduates, namely: Frank Albright, Cleo W. Bash, Edna F. Bleakney, Raymend F. Brandes, Harold Branyan, Frank Burck, Louie Claston, Howard E. Crouse, Norman J. Dill, Thomas E. Dugan, A. W. Eubank, D. L. Everts, Sidney Friedman, Carl R. Gentry, Paul E. Hostetler, Abraham, Hyman, Glenn L. Kennedy, William D. Knox, Leroy Langdon, John A. Maecher, E. J. Meunier, Lowell G. McQuinn, Anstin Roult, Joseph Rosner, Jr., Orin M. Snead, Otis W. Stansifer, and Charles F. Wehrel.

Van N. Sturges was valedictorian. Prof. Ferd A. Mueller, president of the college, presented the diplomas. An address of treeting was made by Dean Edward H. Niles.

Druggist Circular (June 1921): p 235; Book (), Joseph Rosner

He died Oct 22, 1965 after his grandson, Billy Aust kicked a game winning field goal for Brebuf over then rivals Chartrand. The event was published in the newspaper the following day.

BREBEUF WINS, 2 FANS DIE

Tragedy After The Game

By DICK DENNY

It was a night of triumph and tragedy.

Brebeuf won a football game, 14-13, its eighth without a loss, but lost two of its most avid fans. James W. Shirley, 2521 Butterfield, whose son, Jerry, is a senior at the Northwest preparatory school, died of a heart attack last night en route to the game at Chartrand High School. Moments after junior Bill Aust had kicked the decisive extra point with 49 seconds to play, Joseph L. Rosner, 68, of 7665 W. 21st, collapsed in the stands and also died of a heart attack.

Aust is Rosner's grandson.

"My husband lived to watch that boy play foot-ball," said Mrs. Rosner. "He had never missed a game Bill had played since he began the game at St. Christopher's.

"When Bill made that extra point, we kissed. Then my daughter yelled and dad had slumped.

"Football has always been a part of our lives. Ded wouldn't have wanted it any other way."

Aust knew his grandfather had been stricken immediately after the game, but coach Jack Baker ve persuaded him to accompany the team back to Breret beuf. Aust's father, Bill, told him of his grandfather's tio death later.

"G

to

for me

w

"Bill is a great kid," said Baker. "He stays out for practice almost every night working on his kicking.

Se "Ron Miller, the former Indianapolis Warriors ea place kicker who just joined our coaching staff this year, gave Bill a pair of his shoes with a square qu qu toe. It seemed to encourage Bill.

"He took a terrific beating as a fullback last 10 year. This season we have used him some as utility, 10 but we like to keep the kicker fresh. Next year, ag however, it looks as if we've just got to play him at halfback."

Young Aust will have the incentive to make that prediction come true. "Dad will be watching Billy," said Mrs. Rosner pu with great conviction, her eyes dry and her jaw firm,